AN EVENING THAT COULD CHANGE THE WAY YOU SEE THE WORLD

An Inspiring Evening with Scarlett Lewis

Founder, Choose Love Movement

Wednesday, October 28, 2026

6:30–8:00 p.m.

GPHS Performing Arts Center

830 NE 9th Street

Grants Pass, Oregon

When Scarlett Lewis lost her six-year-old son, Jesse, in the Sandy Hook Elementary School tragedy, she faced a choice no parent should ever have to make. Rather than allowing hate to define her future, she chose courage, forgiveness, compassion, and hope.

From that decision grew the Choose Love Movement—an evidence-based initiative transforming schools, families, workplaces, and communities around the world.

Today, Choose Love programs have reached more than 15,000 schools in all 50 states and over 120 countries, empowering millions with practical skills for resilience, connection, emotional intelligence, and thoughtful response.

Whether you're a parent, educator, student, healthcare professional, business leader, nonprofit leader, public servant, or simply someone who believes our communities can become stronger and more connected, this unforgettable evening will leave you inspired, encouraged, and equipped with practical ways to make a difference—one choice at a time.
